MANY LIVESFiremen Caught by Strong
Draught and Hurled Down

TWO ARE ALREADY DEAD

Three More Are Expected to Die and Twenty More New York Firemen
Were Injured in a $100,000
Fire This Morning.

New York, June 6.—Caught by a strong draught in a fire in a bonded warehouse on Washington street, two firemen were killed, three were probably fatally injured and twenty were badly hurt to-day.

The dead are:
Timothy Crothers,
William Healey.

These two men were felled by an explosion and were downed in a pool of water which had collected on the floor when thrown by the firemen to quench the flames. The property loss is estimated at $100,000.

MAN FATALLY BURNED.

Searching for Valuables with Lighted
Match Caused Explosion of Alcohol.

Boston, June 6.—John J. Wise, who was present in the drug store of J. E. Kershaw, when fire and an explosion caused $80,000 damage to-day, was fatally burned. A barrel of denatured alcohol blew up with a crash, shattering the windows and frightening the whole neighborhood. The police think Wise caused it by searching for valuables with a lighted match.

ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH
MAY CAUSE REGAL

It is Reported in London That British Consul General in Egypt Will Be Supplanted by a New Man.

London, June 6.—Following Theodore Roosevelt's startling denunciation of the leniency of the British rule in Egypt, with its implied condemnation of the administration of Sir Eldon Gorst, British consul-general, it is reported that "Gorst is to be recalled. It is the generally accepted belief that General Wingate is likely to succeed Gorst."

London, June 6.—King George and Queen Mary entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt at luncheon in Marlborough house to-day.

LANDED IN BENNINGTON

After Balloon Trip of Five Hours Over Three States.

Bennington, June 6.—A prospective long flight, for which pilot William Van Sleet of Pittsfield and J. D. Benton and F. P. Bowker, both of Boston, had prepared, ended here yesterday 25 miles from the start in Pittsfield, when the balloon, Massachusetts was piloted to a safe landing.

Three aerobats had passed through three states in the five hours' flight, their course crossing New York, over the Hudson river near Troy, from whence they were headed into Vermont.

The highest altitude reached was 7,280 feet.

The landing was witnessed by a large number of guests at a hotel here, over which the balloon had passed, and who immediately made up automobile parties and followed the air craft for a short time until it descended.

ANCIENT HONORABLES CELEBRATE

Military Men Present from All Parts of East.

Boston, June 6.—With Governors Draper, Kimball and Pollard taking part, the Ancient Honorables held their 27th celebration to-day. Fifteen and drummers wore the members, who breakfasted in Faneuil hall, and then paraded to the State House, where they were reviewed on the common. A luncheon will be held to-night. Military men are present from all parts of the East.

ONE MAN KILLED.

When an Electric Car Was Overturned at Syracuse.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 6.—Robert N. Fennell of Seneca Falls was killed and thirteen others were injured, when a trolley car overturned at Seneca Falls last night. The car skidded on wet rails near a switch and when the switch was reached the car left the rails and turned upon its side.

Rutland high school will graduate this year 50 students, 19 of whom are boys. This is an increase over last year of 19, and the prospects are for a still larger class next year. Of the pupils to receive diplomas, 24 are in the general course, 21 in the college preparatory course and ten in the commercial course.

New candidates for honors to be awarded at the Franklin county Republican convention are: Ellis B. Foster of Swanton, whose name will be presented for assistant judge, and M. H. Alexander of St. Albans, who makes the fourth candidate for state attorney.

"Hotel Vermont" is the name that will be painted on the sign in front of the new Burlington hotel, Mr. Powell came to that decision Saturday. The name was suggested by Mrs. C. V. Griswold of that city.

ALMOST A CURSE

Says Chancellor Day Regarding the Automobile.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 6.—There are so many young men courting about the country in automobiles, and their pleasure absorbs such a large share of the productive capital of the country that Chancellor James R. Day believes it is becoming a question if the automobile is not a curse to the country.

The chancellor was speaking to the graduating class of Syracuse university yesterday of self-sufficiency and self-reliance and in those the automobile as a "broad and apparent illustration" of a luxury that too often is not sacrificed. "Young men and women and their business men," he said, "who use all of their capital, are mortgaging their home by the thousands and losing their position often by their intemperance with this form of pleasure."

It is said that about five hundred millions dollars are invested in the automobile trade, and this enormous capital is non-productive. That is, it adds comparatively nothing to the wealth of the people, but on the contrary, absorbs it. It is an enormous drain on the country, and wastes time and money in a certain percentage of the business and pleasure returns in business uses and wholesome rest and recreation.

"I know the criticism that will be made because of what will be said. I will address myself to the abuse of self-indulgence in a good thing. I emphasize self-denial."

Lack of self-denial is accountable, the chancellor believes, for a lower marriage rate. "If you want to know," he said, "why men marry less than of old, perhaps the secret is in the false whim of supporting a wife. He cannot afford to support a wife, he says. No woman needs to be content to be such a wife. She ought to say:

"I am not seeking or consenting to be supported. There will be two of us. If I cannot earn as much as you, I can save more. We will plan together."

"The greatest woman is the woman who brings to a man a home. She is greater than the suffragette or the female temperance lecturer."

"O. HENRY" DEAD.

Brilliant Writer of Short Stories Always Shunned Notoriety.

New York, June 6.—William Sydney Porter, known best under his pen name of "O. Henry," as the writer of brilliant short stories, died yesterday morning at Polytechnic hospital. He underwent an operation on Friday and never rallied.

Mrs. Porter, who had been in South Carolina, was summoned by telegram but did not arrive here until last night, after her husband's death.

Mr. Porter was born in Greenboro, N. C., 45 years ago and began his journalistic career on the Houston Post. He later came to New York, where he was known as a writer of ability. Magazine stories followed and his fame was assured. It was only two years ago, however, that any but his closest friends knew his real name. Then he reluctantly agreed to have his photograph printed, with a brief biographical sketch.

He had been in poor health some time, but it was not thought his illness was serious. Wednesday he dined with friends and seemed in his usual spirits. Friday night he was taken ill and removed to a hospital. A minor operation was performed but he was within an hour of his death yesterday. It was thought he would recover. Derangement of both liver and kidneys, however, proved more deep seated than had been thought and he sank rapidly. The burial will be at Asheville, N. C.

KNOCKED OFF CAR.

Conductor On Burlington Trolley System
Hurt.

Burlington, June 6.—Edward Johnson, conductor on a North avenue car, was knocked off from his car yesterday afternoon, near the Lake View sanatorium, by coming in contact with the handle of a plough. He sustained several cuts and bruises, but the fall and was picked up in an unconscious condition, but soon regained consciousness, and no serious injuries were found last evening.

The plough was one used by the street department in doing the road work on North avenue. It had been left a safe distance from the car and was being moved by a man who was playing with it, instead of so that when Johnson's car came along, the handles were a few inches over the running board. The car was going at a fair speed and no one noticed the plough as when Johnson stepped on to the running board, it took his feet out from under him and threw him with considerable force into the ditch.

Dr. F. McSweney was passing and hurried Johnson to his office in an automobile. The injured man had regained consciousness by the time the office was reached. An examination of the injuries showed them to consist of a bad cut on the forehead and some severe abrasions about the neck, nose and arms.

WILL SUE JOHNSON.

Discharged Manager Wants 25 Per Cent,
As Contracted.

San Francisco, Cal., June 6.—George Little, the manager who was fired by Johnson, is to start legal proceedings to force the negro to give him 25 per cent. of all profits, as called for by the contract. Billy Nola took charge of the camp to-day. Governor Gillette, in a message from Sacramento, says that no matter how many petitions are sent, they will do nothing to prevent the fight, unless conditions arise which make such action unavoidable. He admits that he said the fight was a "fringe" in casual conversation, but didn't expect to be quoted. Johnson is down to 212 pounds and is as fast as lightning. Rowardman reports that Jeffries is gleeful and rapidly getting an edge on training.

Several dogs in Rutland have been poisoned recently and their owners have offered a reward of $100 for information that will lead to the conviction of a guilty party or parties.

In Barton River Valley

IT WAS OBSERVED TODAY

Long Pond, a Body of 400 Acres of Water, Ran Away a Century Ago, and To-day's Event Was in the Bed of the Old Pond.

Glover, June 6.—The bed of what was known as Long pond, a body of 400 acres of water, was the scene to-day of the first historical celebration, when the 100th anniversary of the flooding of the Barton river valley by the runaway pond was celebrated. The celebration was in charge of the Orleans County Historical society, which has commenced to collect and preserve local history. Gun salutes were fired at intervals of ten minutes, from ten o'clock till eleven, and interesting articles relating to the history of the event and persons connected therewith were presented.

At the exercises this afternoon, W. O. King, a Glover selectman, presented a tablet, which had been voted by the town, and G. F. Carpenter of Orleans, president of the historical society, accepted it, after which there were exercises of unveiling, at which F. W. Baldwin read a historical address and Rev. Percin B. Fisk presented an original poem on the event which was being celebrated.

VERMONT FARMERS
SUE BOSTON DAIRY CO.Twelve Producers Claim They Were Not Paid for Milk Supplied to the Company During the Month of April.

Rutland, June 6.—Charging that the Boston Dairy company has refused to pay them for the milk supplied during the month of April because they stopped shipping May 1, 12 producers living in Mt. Holly have brought suit against the company and Saturday Sheriff E. C. Fish of West Rutland placed an attachment on the cheese factory, its contents and considerable property of the company located in Mt. Holly.

The hearing of the case is set for June 20 and will probably be held at Mt. Holly before Justice M. Rice of this city. W. E. Aldrich, the local representative of the company, stated yesterday that he had reason to believe that the checks in payment for the April milk of the plaintiffs would be delivered to them within a day or two.

The farmers who have brought suit are S. A. Pugh, George A. Goodell, A. W. Worthington, G. W. Mead, E. Sprague, R. C. Armstrong, W. M. Dana, E. L. Davenport, D. C. Allard, S. J. Priest, A. D. Macomber and C. D. Davenport, all of Mt. Holly.

Mr. Sprague said yesterday that he had shipped milk to the Boston dairy company for several months and had always received his pay the first of the month following the shipment. At the winter schedule he says the company owes him $112.

A. W. Worthington, the largest shipper, says the company owes him $102.17 and that the checks are long past due.

SPAUDLING TEACHER SURPRISED.

Miss A. Belle Young of Commercial Department Was Guest.

Last Saturday evening, Miss A. Belle Young, who has this year completed her work in charge of the commercial department at Spaulding high school, after five years of conscientious, successful service, was invited to spend a quiet evening with Mr. and Mrs. Adie at 57 Franklin street. On her arrival there, she was greeted by the senior commercial class.

In the course of the evening, the young hostess, Miss Adie, expressed the sentiments of the class in a few appropriate words, to the effect that the class had never, in all their school life, had a teacher whom they so much respected and loved, and voice a keen regret at having to part, adding the hope that they might be remembered kindly, even as she would be remembered. Then, in the name of the class, Miss Adie presented Miss Young a picture by Wallace Spaulding, and a silver salad bowl and bowl.

ONE MAN STABBED.

Winooski Row, in Which Stabber Has Not Been Caught.

Winooski, June 6.—A five-cornered controversy was aired in court Saturday morning before Judge Conlin. A scuffle occurred Friday afternoon on lower Main street near Jennie's lunch room, the cause of which is unknown. It seems to have been a mix-up between Joseph Mailhot, Arthur and William Kirby, David DeLong, Jr., and Arthur Somerville and resulted in Somerville receiving a knife stab in the chest about a half an inch deep. According to the story told in court DeLong was the man who used the knife. The police have not been able to locate him yet.

Arthur Kirby was sentenced to six months in jail and William was fined $5 and costs of $6.00. Joseph Mailhot was fined $10 with costs. Arthur Kirby was out on probation for wounding a man on East Allen street some two or three months ago.

Several dogs in Rutland have been poisoned recently and their owners have offered a reward of $100 for information that will lead to the conviction of a guilty party or parties.

SEVERAL PUBLIC REQUESTS

Made By Emma Edith Curtis, Late of Burlington.

Burlington, June 6.—The will of Emma Edith Curtis, late of Burlington, Vermont, was proved and allowed in probate court on Saturday. Lorenzo E. Woodhouse was appointed executor and Walter C. Isham and Arthur W. Hill appraisers and commissioners. Large sums were left to local charities and the annuities are provided for which will ultimately assist deserving persons to obtain an education.

The Episcopal Aid society of St. Paul's church is left $15,000, to be used for charity as the society may see fit. The Burlington Humane society receives the same amount.

Mrs. Curtis left $10,000 to the Home for Aged Women. In the will it is suggested that this amount be used for the support of a room to be called "The Curtis Room," where aged women may be cared for in case of their inability to pay, free of charge.

By the terms of the will, the home-estate property of Mrs. Curtis at 315 Main street is given to H. W. Allen, C. W. Woodhouse and L. E. Woodhouse as trustees, the property being subject to the life estate of Miss Jennie E. Lattin. This property together with such bequests as may not be paid, if any, and the residue of the estate will be held in trust by the three men named, and income and profits shall be expended as follows: One and one-half per cent. for the support of the Curtis room, or to obtain instruction in domestic science or other useful knowledge. The trustees are empowered to incorporate the project, if they see fit. Those who are to receive the benefit of this fund are to be chosen in the judgment of the trustees.

LOCAL GOLF RULES.

To Govern Mixed Tournament During Next Two Months.

The rules governing the mixed tournament of the Barre Golf club, which begins this week, are announced as follows:

The tournament shall consist of eight qualifying games at medal play, and the four pairs having the best average shall play off at match play to decide the winner.

To qualify, players must have played in at least six of the qualifying games. The qualifying games shall be played as follows: One and one-half per cent. for the support of the Curtis room, or to obtain instruction in domestic science or other useful knowledge. The trustees are empowered to incorporate the project, if they see fit. Those who are to receive the benefit of this fund are to be chosen in the judgment of the trustees.

WAS CAUGHT IN THE ACTAnd Gets Two Years In House of Correction

FOR ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

James Shiner, Captured by Montpelier
Police Yesterday Morning, May Know Something About Railroad Station Robbery.

An amateur burglar, James Shiner, caught in the act of breaking into Lynn B. Brooks' store in the opera house building at Montpelier early yesterday morning was sentenced in Montpelier city court this forenoon to spend not less than two years and not more than two and a half years in the house of correction at Rutland, he having pleaded guilty on an attempted burglary charge.

Although there is nothing to connect Shiner with the robbery of the Montpelier & Wells River railroad station at Montpelier early Saturday morning when six mileage books were stolen, the Montpelier police have suspicions that Shiner knows something about the break.

They say they have learned that Shiner was in his room at ten o'clock Friday night and that he went out at one o'clock in the morning and returned at two o'clock. He has been working on the new city hall for the past five weeks. The police say that breaks of one kind and another began only two weeks after Shiner arrived in Montpelier.

Albert J. Gaurneau was waiting in his tailoring establishment in the block in order to catch the night train and, shortly after 2 o'clock, heard someone trying to fit a key into the lock on his door. Knowing the lock to be a double one and that no entrance could be effected, Mr. Gaurneau cautiously proceeded to the key hole and watched the would-be burglar as he went down the hall, stopping at several doors on the way, trying to gain an entrance.

When the man disappeared from sight, Mr. Gaurneau telephoned to the police station and Officer Conolly began a search for him. He went to the rear of the Blanchard block and soon heard someone working at the lock on the door at the rear of the Lynn B. Brooks grocery store. Being unsuccessful, the man moved on to the next door, where he tried to pry open the basement door to the McClen store, following that with an attempt at the rear door on the platform. Mr. Conolly was at hand and the burglar sought safety of him at this time and ran to a shed at the rear of one Putney stable, where he hid.

Officer Conolly, threw his flashlight upon the man and called upon him to surrender, which he was very ready to do, though he begged to be let off as he said it was his first offense of the kind. He was recognized as James Shiner, who had his wife arrested last week for breach of the peace.

ASK FOR GUARDIAN

For Woman Who Was Married a Week
Ago To-day.

A hearing will be held before Judge Frank J. Martin in Washington county probate court on June 10, on the application of Mrs. Minnie E. Sanborn of Barre for a guardian to be appointed over her grandmother, Mrs. Mary (Worthen) Yearstow, whose marriage to Frank Yearstow took place at East Barre one week ago to-day, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Frank Blomfield, who had recently come to East Barre from Michigan. The grounds named in the petition for a guardian state that Mrs. Yearstow is not sound mentally and that she is incapable of looking after her financial interests.

Mrs. Yearstow's marriage to Frank Yearstow caused considerable of a sensation when it was announced last Tuesday, the bride being 20 years older than the groom, who is 49, and the latter not being welcomed by the woman's relatives. Mrs. Yearstow's former husband, Linus Worthen, died two years ago, leaving some property, including the home place near the Cobble hill neighborhood. Mrs. Yearstow has recently returned to Barre and opened a blacksmithing business.

SINGLE APPEAL ALLOWED.

Joseph Merz Thought He Ought Not to Be Taxed on $1,825.

Only one appeal was presented to the board of civil authority Saturday night when opportunity was given aggrieved taxpayers to appeal on acts of the assessors. The single appeal was by Joseph Merz, and his claim was considered so just that it was promptly allowed by the board, of whom there were twelve present. F. G. Howland, president, and James Mackay was clerk.

The Merz appeal was on a personal property list of $1,825, which was charged against Mr. Merz on the strength of his transfer to the city of his home property on Maple avenue, at the entrance to Hope cemetery. The property was denied in the city last February, but since the seller was willing to wait for his money until the city was in better shape to make the payment there was no money transfer although a warrant was drawn for the amount. Mr. Merz has not yet called for his money.

Even if there were no other reasons for sustaining the appeal, there is a law adopted in 1908 by the legislature which covers this point exactly when notes of a city or incorporated village bearing less than four per cent. interest are held. So the vote to allow Mr. Merz's appeal was carried. There was no other business before the meeting of the board, and adjournment was soon taken.

HORSE MADE THINGS LIVELY.

Waterbury Man Injured and Wagon Demolished Yesterday.

Waterbury, June 6.—Fred Ravelin had a lively experience yesterday. He had hired a team of F. L. Eaton and driven to Stowe. On his return, he stopped at the Grover place to feed the horse, substituting a halter for the bridle, the horse being still harnessed to the wagon. Soon a plunge was made by the animal, throwing Mr. Ravelin down, the vehicle passing over his ankle. The horse made a dash down the road, running to the steam mill in the village, where he was stopped, the wagon being demolished. Mr. Ravelin, in the meantime, was taken to Dr. Minard's and, while no bones were found broken, he will be obliged to use crutches for a time.

J. L. Dutton of Hoosier, N. Y., was in the city to-day.

NEW FEATURE OF PICNIC

Was Ride In J. K. Pirie's Gasoline Buggy at Burns Club Affair.

The members of the Burns club gathered at Caladonia park Saturday afternoon for their 18th annual picnic and enjoyed one of the best outings in the history of the club. The party, including the members and their families, numbered about fifty and all entered into the sport of the day with their usual spirit. A baseball game was pulled out between two teams, captained by Jack Chesser and William Macdonald, who were also the box artists for their respective teams. The score ended after an exciting contest for their respective teams. The score ended after an exciting contest 9 to 2 in favor of Capt. Chesser's nine.

After the ball game the company assembled in groups under the trees and did full justice to the well-filled baskets of food brought by the ladies. The party was then treated to a new feature for these occasions by being given an exhilarating "joy ride" about the grounds in J. K. Pirie's gasoline buggy, which he generously placed at their disposal until everyone had had a ride.

The races were then started and the winners were as follows: Boys under 7 years, John Emale, first; Wallace Counts, second; Alex. Brown, third.

Girls under 7 years, Madeline Scott, first; Bella McDonald, second; Evaline Chesser, third; Elva Lamont, fourth.

Girls 7 to 9 years, Christine Pirie, first; Mary McDonald, second; Elsie Pirie, third.

Girls 9 to 12 years, Violet Brown, first; Georgiana Chesser, second; Grace Brown, third.

Married ladies, Mrs. Fred Reid, first; Mrs. Angus McDonald, second; Mrs. Robert Stewart, third.

Single ladies, Miss Willard, first; Miss Garrity, second; Miss Patterson, third.

Married men's race, James Booth, first; James McKenzie, second; James Mitchell, third; Robert Stewart, fourth.

Coburn's orchestra furnished music for dancing in the pavilion during the day. The club's committee, which had the outing in charge was composed of Edward Chesser, president; John S. McDonald, vice-president; Robert Inglis, secretary; A. M. Smith, treasurer, and James Patterson.

LEG WAS JAMMED

BY HEAVY STONE

Charles Higgs, Employed at Jones &
Stevens' Plant, Victim of Painful Accident This Forenoon.

Charles Higgs, a stonecutter employed at Jones & Stevens plant, had a narrow escape from serious injury at 10:30 o'clock this morning. He was at work cutting a stone in one corner of the shed, and some fellow workmen were jacking up a large stone beside him. The stone, which was being raised, got away from the men and fell over towards the stone at which Mr. Higgs was at work. The stone struck Mr. Higgs' leg just below the knee and pinned him against the stone he was working on.

With bars the men quickly removed the stone from his leg. The man was suffering great pain and it was first thought that his leg had been broken but on being examined by Dr. W. E. Lazell it was found that no bones were broken. There were two bad bruises, one below the knee on the outside of his leg and the other above the knee on the inside of the leg. A. W. Badger & Co.'s ambulance was called, and Higgs was removed to his home at 7 Prospect avenue.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HADDEN

Was Held Sunday Afternoon from Her Late Home.

The funeral of Mrs. Alexander Hadden, who died Friday morning, was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the late home on North Main street, Rev. J. D. McKensie, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Miss Emma Phillips and Miss Lena McDonald sang. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives. The pall bearers were John Morgan, Alex. Under Downers, William Emale, John Muir, Alexander Emale and Donald McLeod. The interment was in the Hope cemetery.

ATTENDED BY CLAN GORDON.

Funeral of William Able, Which Was Held at Presbyterian Church.

The funeral of William Able, who died Wednesday morning was held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, Rev. J. D. McKensie officiating. A delegation from Clan Gordon, No. 12, O. S. C., attended in a body, and the burial service of that order was performed at the grave in Hope cemetery. The church choir sang during the service. The pall bearers, all from Clan Gordon, were John Forbes, Duncan McMillan, James Fraser, James Imah, Donald McLeod and William Cruikshank.

MRS. ELI DRURY

Died Sunday Morning at Her Home In South Barre.

Mrs. Eli Drury died Sunday morning at her home in South Barre after a long illness. Besides her husband she leaves one son, Fred Drury, of this city. The funeral was held from the house at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the body was taken to Wolcott for burial to-morrow morning.

Funeral of Mrs. W. H. Clough.

The funeral of Mrs. William H. Clough was held at 11:30 Saturday forenoon from the Clough home on Camp street, Rev. Dr. J. W. Barnett officiating. The interment was in the family lot at Elmwood, and the bearers were William H. Clough, David R. Wood, James Clough and Carl Clough.

Harrison Whipple returned to his home in Rockingham to-day, after spending a week with friends here.
